STATUTORY PROVISIONS

9. Section 123 of the Code states:

It is a misdemeanor for any person to engage in any conduct which subverts or attempts to subvert any licensing examination or the administration of an examination, including, but not limited to:

(a) Conduct which violates the security of the examination materials; removing from the examination room any examination materials without authorization; the unauthorized reproduction by any means of any portion of the actual licensing examination; aiding by any means the unauthorized reproduction of any portion of the actual licensing examination; paying or using professional or paid examination-takers for the purpose of reconstructing any portion of the licensing examination; obtaining examination questions or other examination material, except by specific authorization either before, during, or after an examination; or using or purporting to use any examination questions or materials which were improperly removed or taken from any examination for the purpose of instructing or preparing any applicant for examination; or selling, distribution, buying, receiving, or having unauthorized possession of any portion of a future, current, or previously administered licensing examination.

(b) Communicating with any other examinee during the administration of a licensing examination; copying answers from another examinee or permitting one's answers to be copied by another examinee; having in one's possession during the administration of the licensing examination any books, equipment, notes, written or printed materials, or data of any kind, other than the examination materials distributed, or otherwise authorized to be in one's possession during the examination; or impersonating any examinee or having an impersonator take the licensing examination on one's behalf.

Nothing in this section shall preclude prosecution under the authority provided for in any other provision of law.

In addition to any other penalties, a person found guilty of violating this section, shall be liable for the actual damages sustained by the agency administering the examination not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and the costs of litigation.

10. Section 8641 of the Code states in pertinent part, that failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter, or any rule or regulation adopted by the board, . . . is a ground for disciplinary action.

1 been convicted of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and
2 duties of the licensee in question, the record of conviction of the crime shall be
3 conclusive evidence of the fact that the conviction occurred, but only of that fact,
4 and the board may inquire into the circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime in order to fix the degree of discipline or to determine if the conviction is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of the licensee in question.

5 As used in this section, "license" includes "certificate," "permit,"
6 "authority," and "registration."

7 REGULATIONS

8 16. California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1937.1 states:

9 For the purposes of denial, suspension or revocation of a license or company
10 registration pursuant to Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 475) of the code, a 11 crime or act shall be considered to be substantially related to the qualifications, 12 functions or duties of a licensee or registered company under Chapter 14 of 13 Division 3 of the code if to a substantial degree it evidences present or potential
14 unfitness of such licensee or registered company to perform the functions authorized by the license or company registration in a manner consistent with the public health, safety, or welfare. Such crimes or acts shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

15 (a) Any violation of the provisions of Chapter 14, of Division 3 of the code.

16 (b) Commission of any of the following in connection with the practice of structural pest control:

17 (1) Fiscal dishonesty.

18 (2) Fraud.

19 (3) Theft.

20 (4) Violations relating to misuse of pesticides.

21 17. California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1937.2 states:

23 (b) When considering the suspension or revocation of a structural pest 24 control license or company registration on the grounds that the licensee or 25 registered company has been convicted of a crime, the board, in evaluating the rehabilitation of such person or company and his or her or its present eligibility for a license or company registration will consider the following:

26 (1) Nature and severity of the act(s) or offense(s).

27 (2) Total criminal record.
28

1 (3) The time that has elapsed since commission of the act(s) or offense(s).

2 (4) Whether the licensee or registered company has complied with any 3 terms of parole, probation, restitution or any other sanctions lawfully imposed against the licensee or registered company.

4 (5) If applicable, evidence of expungement proceedings pursuant to Section
5 1203.4 of the Penal Code.

6 (6) Evidence, if any, of rehabilitation submitted by the licensee or registered company.

7 COSTS

8 18. Section 125.3 of the Code provides, in pertinent part, that the Board may request the 9 administrative law judge to direct a licensee found to have committed a violation or violations of 10 the licensing act to pay a sum not to exceed the reasonable costs of the investigation and 11 enforcement of the case.

12 FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

13 (July 27, 2009 Criminal Conviction for Arrest on September 12, 2008)

14 19. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under Code sections 490 and 8649 in that 15 Respondent was convicted of a crime that is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, 16 and duties of a structural pest control operator and field representative. The circumstances are as 17 follows:

18 20. On or about July 27, 2009, in a criminal proceeding entitled People of the State of
19 California v. Bobby Kanani Kualii, in Orange County Superior Court, Case No. 09WM05583,
20 Respondent was convicted on his plea of guilty to violating Penal Code section 529.5(c)
21 (possession of a false government document), a misdemeanor; Code section 123(b) (unauthorized 22 communication with another examinee), a misdemeanor; Penal Code section 472 (forgery of 23 official seal), a misdemeanor; Penal Code section 470(b) (forgery), a misdemeanor; and Penal 24 Code section 529(a) (manufacture and sell false government document), a misdemeanor.

25 21. On or about July 27, 2009, imposition of the sentence was suspended and Respondent
26 was placed on three years informal probation, and ordered to complete 20 days of community
27 service; to pay court costs in the amount of $280, pay $100 in restitution fines and pay security 28 fees of $60.
