STATUTORY PROVISIONS

28. Business and Professions Code ("Code") section 8620 provides, in pertinent part, that the Board may suspend or revoke a license when it finds that the holder, while a licensee or applicant, has committed any acts or omissions constituting cause for disciplinary action or in lieu of a suspension may assess a civil penalty.

29. Code section 8625 states:

> The lapsing or suspension of a license or company registration by operation of law or by order or decision of the board or a court of law, or the voluntary surrender of a license or company registration shall not deprive the board of jurisdiction to proceed with any investigation of or action or disciplinary proceeding against such licensee or company, or to render a decision suspending or revoking such license or registration.

30. Code section 8637 states:

Misrepresentation of a material fact by the applicant in obtaining a license or company registration is a ground for disciplinary action.

31. Code section 8639 states:

Aiding or abetting an unlicensed individual or un company to evade the provisions of this chapter or knowingly combining or conspiring with an unlicensed individual or un company, or allowing one's license or company registration to be used by an unlicensed individual or un company or acting as an agent or partner or associate or otherwise of an unlicensed individual or un company to evade provisions of this chapter is a ground for disciplinary action.

32. Code section 8641 states:

Failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter, or any rule or regulation adopted by the board, or the furnishing of a report of inspection without the making of a bona fide inspection of the premises for wood-destroying pests or organisms, or furnishing a notice of work completed prior to the completion of the work specified in the contract, is a ground for disciplinary action.

33. Code section 8613 states:

A company which changes the location of its principal office or any branch office or which changes its qualifying manager, branch supervisor, officers, or its bond or insurance shall notify the registrar in writing of such change within 30 days thereafter. A fee or filing such changes shall be in accordance with Section 8674.

34. Code section 8651 states:

The performing or soliciting of structural pest control work, the inspecting for structural or household pests, or the applying of any pesticide, chemical, or allied substance for the purpose of eliminating, exterminating, controlling, or preventing structural pests in branches of pest control other than those for which the operator, field representative, or applicator is licensed or the company is is a ground for disciplinary action.

35. Code section 8610(c) states:

Each company shall designate an individual or individuals who hold an operator's license to act as its qualifying manager or managers. The qualifying manager or managers must be licensed in each branch of pest control in which the company engages in business. The designated qualifying manager or managers shall supervise the daily business of the company and shall be available to supervise and assist all employees of the company, in accordance with regulations which the board may establish.

36. Code section 8612 states:

The licenses of qualifying managers and company registrations shall be prominently displayed in the company's office, and no registration issued hereunder shall authorize the company to do business except from the location for which the registration was issued. Each company having a branch office or more than one branch office shall be required to display its branch office registration prominently in each branch office it maintains.

When a company opens a branch office it shall notify the registrar in writing on a form prescribed by the board and issued by the registrar in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the board. The notification shall include the name of the individual designated as the branch supervisor and shall be submitted with the fee for a branch office prescribed by this chapter.

37. Code section 8550(e) states:

It is unlawful for any firm, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, association, or other organization or combination therefore to engage or offer to engage in the practice of structural pest control, unless in accordance with Article 6 (commencing with Section 8610).

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

38. California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1918 states, in pertinent part:

"Supervise" as used in Business and Professions Code Sections 8506.2, 8610 and 8611 means the oversight, direction, control, and inspection of the daily business of the company and its employees, and the availability to observe, assist, and instruct company employees, as needed to secure full compliance with all laws and regulations governing structural pest control.

39. California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1999.5 states, in pertinent part:

It is the purpose of this regulation to protect the public from false, misleading, deceptive, or unfair representations or claims concerning structural pest control while enabling the public to receive truthful and legitimate information about those structural pest control products and services and the potential of these products and services to reduce impact to health or the environment.

(f) Examples of direct or indirect statements or representations which are unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading include, but are not limited to, the following:

(6) any statement or representation that a pest control, product, pesticide, or device or combination therefore offers a general environmental protection or benefit unless the statement or representation can be sustained within the meaning of 16 CFR, 260.5 and is limited to the specific nature of the environment or health benefit being asserted.

(10) any unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading comparison of pest control services, methods, products, pesticides or devices.

(11) any statement or representation that a pesticide or device is certified, sponsored, recommended, endorsed, or approved by any agency of the Federal Government or the State of California, including but not limited to, "tested by the Department of the Interior," "EPA approved," "EPA ," "approved by the Structural Pest Control Board," or "recommended by the Structural Pest Control Board," except that a statement or representation of this type is permissible specifically authorized by the Federal or State agency to which it prefers.

COST RECOVERY

40. Code section 125.3 provides, in pertinent part, that the Board may request the administrative law judge to direct a licentiate found to have committed a violation or violations of the licensing act to pay a sum not to exceed the reasonable costs of the investigation and enforcement of the case.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

41. On or about June 20, 2010, the Board became aware that Respondent Eagleshield was allowing its employees and/or partners to work on their own behalf without supervision, and allowing them to engage in pest control work that they were not licensed to perform. The partners and/or employees were working and/or living throughout all of California. The Board also discovered that there were no registered branch offices in the near geographic area where the applicators were working and/or living.

DISCIPLINE AGAINST EAGLESHIELD PEST CONTROL, L.P.
Company Registration Certificate No. 5706
Operator's License No. OPR 11493

FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Failure to Supervise Company Operations)

42. FIFTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Failure to Register Branch Offices)

46. Respondent Eagleshield's company registration and Respondent Flores' operator's licenses are subject to discipline under Code section 8641, in that between October 23, 2008, and February 24, 2010, Respondents violated Code section 8612 by failing to register branch offices within 30 days of operation and/or performing work from addresses that were not registered with the Board, as defined in California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1912.

SIXTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(False and Misleading Advertisement)

47. Respondent Eagleshield's company registration and Respondent Flores' operator's licenses are subject to discipline under Code section 8641, in that in or about 2010, Respondents violated California Code of Regulations, title 16, by presenting false, misleading, unfair representations, or deceptive advertisements in the following respects:

Section 1999.5, subdivision (f)(6):

a. That it used Eco Friendly products.

Section 1999.5, subdivision (f)(10):

b. That its service was better than others because it had local partners or independent owners when, in fact, it did not.

c. That it had over 50 years of combined experience when, in fact, it does not.

Section 1999.5, subdivision (f)(11):

d. That it used only EPA certified products approved by the State of California.

DISCIPLINE AGAINST RAY GENE TEEL
Operator's License No. OPR 7278

SEVENTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Failure to Supervise Company Operations)

48. Respondent Teel's operator license is subject to discipline under Code section 8641, in that between October 5, 2005, and October 23, 2008, while the Qualifying Manager of Eagleshield Pest Control (PR 4875), Respondent Teel violated Code section 8610(c), by failing to supervise the daily operations of the company and be available to supervise and assist all employees of the company, as defined in California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1918. .

EIGHTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Aiding and Abetting Unlicensed Activity)

49. Respondent Teel's operator license is subject to discipline under Code section 8639, in that between October 5, 2005, and October 23, 2008, while the Qualifying Manager of Eagleshield Pest Control (PR 4875), Respondent aided or abetted unlicensed activities by allowing applicators to perform activities that they were not licensed to perform, such as making identifications, performing inspections, submitting bids, and securing pest control work.

NINTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Misrepresentation of a Material Fact)
