INSTRUCTIONS FOR RENEWAL (Please Read Carefully)

YOUR APPLICATORS LICENSE EXPIRES ON THE DATE PRINTED BELOW. This renewal application must be returned to the Board by the expiration date below. It is unlawful to perform duties requiring licensure until the license is renewed. A delinquent renewal fee of an additional $5.00 is charged for renewing late.

CHANGES TO CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

IF YOU ARE RENEWING YOUR APPLICATOR LICENSE ON OR AFTER 1/1/2009, YOU MUST MEET THE NEW CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS.

Section 1950(e) - For the renewal period ending December 31, 2008, and each subsequent renewal period, a licensed applicator shall have completed 12 hours of Board approved continuing education.

Section 1950(f) - For the renewal period ending June 30, 2010 and each subsequent renewal period, a licensed applicator shall have completed 12 hours of Board approved continuing education. Such continuing education shall consist of six hours of continuing education covering pesticide application and use, two hours covering Integrated Pest Management, and four hours covering the Structural Pest Control Act and its rules and regulations or structural pest related agencies' rules and regulation.

You must complete parts C, D, and H below. Your signature certifies under penalty of perjury that you have completed the required number of continuing education hours. FOR AUDIT PURPOSES, YOU MUST MAINTAIN CERTIFICATES OF COURSE COMPLETION FOR THREE YEARS. All continuing education hours used to renew this license must have been earned within the three-year period prior to the expiration date.

Licenses with more than one license may use the same hours to fulfill the renewal requirements for each license.

Licenses may take an examination in lieu of completing continuing education. The examination may be taken only once and no earlier than one year prior to the license expiration date. If the examination is failed, the licensee must obtain the necessary continuing education hours. Anyone interested in taking an examination should contact the Board.

DETACH HERE & RETAIN PART 1 FOR YOUR RECORDS. ALLOW 6-8 WEEKS FOR PROCESSING YOUR RENEWAL.

RETURN THIS FORM WITH YOUR CHECK OR MONEY ORDER.
